Shack updates:

Sorell – DT and LC still working with Ken Fisher for dates; John Hughes mentioned to Ian Stokes that the Screen to the bathroom window has been shredded.

Miena – Ambulance Tas who looked at the Defib, suggested to move the defib inside to prolong life. This was agreed upon by consensus at the meeting.

Ian Stokes mentioned the abundance of broom weed at the club shack. There is an info session at the Community centre next sunday and they are providing kits to eradicate weeds. Wayne and Tim Urbanc looking into attending for the club Shack along with Ian Stokes for his shack. Derwent River Catchment Program is the name of the program.

Activities report

Cane Day at Little Pine – 25 Jan – 27 anglers attended. There was a good representation from the club. 6 fish caught, best fish at 3.5lb caught by Glen Becher. Beautiful day but tough conditions. $540 was raised for Prostate Cancer and Tom Wooley provided an excellent BBQ. Meal at the Pub the night before was also a great success thanks to Hairy

Lake Ina Trip 31 Jan – 3rd Feb - Glenn and Heather and Tom Wooley attended. Had cold weather with a bit of snow. A couple fish caught.
